The hand-out to take away is great as a reference point/reminder of what is being covered. Good insight into the daily routine of the kids Very thorough and well delivered. I was also really really pleased to hear about the discussions re online safety Appreciate the time taken to put a presentation together rather than just look informally at hand-outs. Good to understand more about the childrens' day. This was the best curriculum evening I have been to so far, a lot of information and helpful tips. Great presentation by the teachers involved. Thank you Mrs Inglis, Mrs Neal, Mrs Carver. A very useful evening, great idea! Mr Coughlin seems very enthusiastic and is very helpful Very helpful. Also interesting to see their weekly schedule! My wife and I have submitted our email addresses to the School Office previously and have checked recently they have them both but we found out about this curriculum evening through other parents' comments via class' Whatsapp group. If we have missed this communication then what else are we missing? Really useful to be provided with a booklet rather than going from table to table collecting leaflets - this will be very useful to refer to during this school year
