Getting More Help

- Under 5s - with significant behavioural, social or emotional difficulties where previous universal interventions have not alleviated the difficulties, in partnership with the Health Visitor service.
- Children with Severe Learning Disabilities – who have mental health and/or significant behavioural difficulties, in partnership with the Local Authority disability team.
- Deliberate self-harm - accompanied by suicidal ideation and a pattern of emotional dysregulation and poor coping strategies.

CAMHS do not accept referrals where: the young person is aged over 18, the referred problem may be best treated in an alternative service, for those with behavioural difficulties, and/or a more clinically appropriate service has been commissioned from an alternative provider, children are in court proceedings and intervention is not advised under Home Office guidelines. Looked after Children may be more appropriate to Polaris/Oomo, and this should be considered in the first instance by Social Workers.
