Worthwhile meeting; all good with child. Levels/KPIs would have been helpful. Like new format Very useful for my daughter to hear the positive comments. She was a little too shy to give her honest opinion whilst in there - Interestingly she mentioned she would have talked more if it had just been the teacher, rather than teacher plus 2 TAs. I agree having the children at the settling in parent's eve was good. I'd rather the more detailed parent's eve later in the year is just parents. Hence the yes/no above. Thank you. Lovely that he could join us and nice having more of a pastoral type of meeting. He is so happy at the school. We aren't allowing him to leave!!! All very positive and helpful, know how support to support him, thank you As at the end of year 5 there is a selection process for grammar school I would have liked to know more about my child's academic ability in relation to her peers. I was delighted to hear that my son has made good, positive progress so far in year 6. I thought it was beneficial for him to be a part of our meeting, to share his views and hear all the great comments made. Thank you Mr Neal & Mr Ryan Thought the format worked very well. Loved having my son in the meeting found it fantastic hearing his point of view and seeing him communicating with the teachers. Hope it continues. Dates/ times available not ideal for parents whose jobs are not 9-5pm My daughter wasn't able to attend on this occasion, but I do think this is a good idea. Wonderful engaging teacher
