Any aspects of the school you have been especially pleased with:

Friendly, close knit family feel
 Engaging parents with school life e.g. school trips, assemblies
 An outstanding platform for the start of our boys' education
 Standard of teaching is excellent
 Support and encouragement by all staff has been outstanding
 Concerns dealt with kindness and fairness
 A lovely community feel
 Friendly and accommodating
 Sports events
 Staff have been so welcoming and friendly
 Attention to personal needs and personalities of the pupils
 Everything
 Christian ethos and how the children are encouraged to think of others

Any aspects of the school you would like to see improved:

More communication with parents
 Not enough to eat with school meals
 Guitar lessons not consistent
 Additional tutoring for all levels of children
 So many ways of communicating it can be overwhelming
 Toilets need updating
 A system for new parents to meet existing ones
 Extra-curricular activities

What message would you give to new reception parents for them to get the best from their 7 year primary education at St Bridget's:

Get involved with school activities
 Get involved with understanding what your child is learning
 Allow your child to develop at their own pace
 Have faith and trust the teaching staff
 Support your child's homework
 Just relax and enjoy it
 Worry less
 School will always help your child
